

Events:

- All year-
-Project Heart
- February-
-Daddy Daughter Dance
- October-
-Mummy and Son Dance
- December-
-Community Singers Holiday Concert
-Jingle Bell Sweepstakes
-Community Christmas Dinner
-Community Jazz Band Holiday Concert

How To Get Involved:

You can donate to the Stillwater Community Center or Volunteer to help maintain our facility through the Friends of Stillwater Community Center non profit organization
Sccfriends.com

Stillwater Community Center

315 W. 8th Ave, Stillwater, Oklahoma
Communitycenter@stillwater.org
405-533-8433

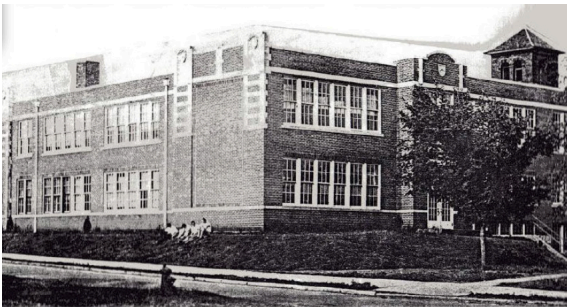

Stillwater Community Center

315 W. 8th Ave, Stillwater, Oklahoma
Communitycenter@stillwater.org
405-533-8433

Mission:

The mission of the Stillwater Community Center is to enhance the quality of life for all residents of the Stillwater area by providing facilities and resources to community and cultural activities.

History:

The Community center is owned and managed by the City of Stillwater. It was built in the 1930s as the Stillwater Junior High School and acquired by the city in 1991.

Rent:

The Stillwater Community center is located an hour from both Tulsa and Oklahoma City; making it a great regional location.

An event Staff and online box office to manage the event.

State-of-the-art lighting and sounds equipment for small or large stage productions.

Grand or upright piano

Plenty of Free parking.

14 well-equipped rooms

The Lowry Activity Center (LAC) has a large open floor, which is perfect for weddings, receptions, workshops, exhibits, various presentations, dinners, dances, dance classes, banquets, and more. It features a small curtained stage that can be used for concerts, speeches, recitals, or anything requiring a small stage.

The 710-seat Winfrey D. Houston Theater is perfect for small or large stage productions.

